

Grade: Social Studies 7

Mastery Check 1

Benchmark#: E. 7.5.2

State Language: Explains how an individual's income will differ in the labor market depending on supply of/and demand for his/her human capital.

Student Friendly Language: I can explain how an individual's income will differ in the labor market depending on supply of and demand for my human capital (e.g., skills, abilities, and/or education level).

Concept (Students will know):

Define: Supply, Demand, human capital, labor market

Skills (Students will do):

Create a flow chart of job opportunities the skills required along with the average income associated with each job.

Topics:

Economics

DOK Level:

2

Big Ideas:

How education levels and skills impact income level

Essential Questions:

Organize various professions based on income opportunity
Which job opportunities require the most education?
What events lead to unemployment?

Core Materials

Supplemental Materials:

Teaching Strategies:

Guided practice

Mastery Check Items: