

Grade: Social Studies 7
Benchmark#: G.7.2.2

Mastery Check 2

State Language:

Identifies and compares the human characteristics of world regions

Student Friendly Language:

I can identify and compare the human characteristics of world regions (e.g., people, religions, languages, customs, governments, agricultural, industrial, architecture, arts, and education).

Concept (Students will know):

Identifies various religions
Understand various customs
Summarize agrarian and industrialized society

Skills (Students will do):

Make a flowchart dealing with language and customs.
List religions and different groups that practice that religion.

Topics:

Geography

DOK Level:

2

Big Ideas:

Develop an understanding of how human characteristics are affected by various regions of the world

Essential Questions:

What country has the largest percentage of protestants in their country?
What language and custom have changed the state of Kansas?
How does agriculture or industry affect specific areas?

Core Materials

Supplemental Materials:

Teaching Strategies:

Guided practice

Mastery Check Items: