

Grade: Social Studies 8		Mastery Check 3
Benchmark#: H.8.4.2
State Language: Examines a variety of different types of primary sources in U.S. history and analyzes them in terms of credibility, purpose, and point of view.		Student Friendly Language: I can examine a variety of different types of primary sources in U.S. history and analyze them in terms of credibility, purpose, and point of view.
Concept (Students will know): Define: Primary source Author's credibility Author's purpose Author's point of view	Skills (Students will do): List a variety of primary sources Read various documents and explain the author's purpose and point of view	Topics: History and Reading	DOK Level: 3
Big Ideas: Looking at historical primary resources and understanding them in terms of credibility, purpose and point of view.
Essential Questions: Compare two different types of primary resources in terms of point of view. Site evidence of credibility between two different primary resources. In the reading of a primary source, prove the author's credibility.
Core Materials		Supplemental Materials:
Teaching Strategies:
Mastery Check Items:			